

Only the Judge has the authority to dismiss a case without cost. The only exception to this is an insurance violation.

DRIVING SCHOOL/TRAFFIC SCHOOL

Eligible charges for school unless the charge was the result of an accident:

- Speeding
- Improper Turn
- Following to Close
- Failure to Yield
- Passing School Bus
- Any Moving Traffic Violation (NOTE: this DOES NOT include reckless driving, drag racing, speeding in construction zone (with workers present) speeding in school zone or in excess of 30 miles over posted speed limit. Defendant will have to appear in court on these citations depending upon facts of the case and recommendations made by the officer of State of Tennessee.
- Seatbelt
- Child Restraint
- County Ordinances
- NOTE: If you have a CDL (Commercial License) driving school is not an option.

If eligible, it is required that the defendant appear at the clerk's office to sign up for class before the scheduled court date. The defendant will be given a choice of class dates to choose from. If necessary, the clerk will reset the case in order to give the defendant time to complete the school and pay the dismissal cost. The case must be paid by the court date. The defendant must also bring their original certificate of completion to the clerk's office. We keep the original and place it in the file.

We will not accept payment without the original certificate. Copies will not be accepted.

Payment Policy

We do not accept personal checks. Individuals may pay with a cashiers check, money order or cash.
